Newbury Village Store - since 1840

Situated on the common in the heart of the picture postcard Newbury, Vermont and overlooking the Beautiful Connecticut River Valley, The Newbury Village Store is more than a convenient stop. It is an experience. You will sense a friendly warmth and genuine sense of community as soon as you walk through the distinctive red doors. Laughter and congenial conversation are fixtures. So too are the aromas of fresh baked goods and creative delights that emanate from our distinctive deli. Our store is The kind of place you thought might not exist anymore in this impersonal world of box stores and mega chains.

We seek to delight and "Wow" our customers, and welcome your visit any time.
